			Reflect and answer 2. In struggling fishing village of Kovalam in Kerala, Kali Veerapathiran is a hero. Not because he is an actor, and not because he has fought off villains. What do these lines tell us about the people who are usually considered heroes in India? Is this a good definition of a "hero"? Ans. In India, people consider someone a hero when he/she fights bad people and defeats them .This is very similar to what happens in the movies. No, I don't think this is a good definition of a hero.
VI	English Literature	Kali Wants to Dance	Reflect and answer 3."Who has ever learnt dance and made any money afterwards? Its a waste of time !"growls Kali's maama. "Only girls dance! You'll become girlish," his friends tease him. What do these lines tells us about people's opinions of different professions? What do you think we can do to change these views? Ans. These lines tells us that people have a fixed set of professions they consider respectable. If someone does anything besides these jobs , he/she is not given any respect. It can be changed by educating people about such professions and their benefits. 4.Amma asks Kali what his heart wants. ' Do you love dance ? Does it make you feel good ? Is that what you want to spend life doing?

			"Yes ! Dance is all that and more for me, Amma, " he replies..... What does this conversation tell us about Amma's nature? What do you know about Kali's relationship with her? Ans. This conversation tells us that Amma had a kind, simple and accepting nature. It shows that Kali has a very nice and loving relationship with his mother as they both care for each other and simply wants the other person to be happy.
VI	English Literature	Kali Wants to Dance	Reflect and answer 5.How did Kali evolve , both as a dancer and as a person , through the journey described in the lesson? Ans. Each time Kali thought of giving up dancing, Amma was there to reminds him that dancing made him the happiest. Kali evolved as a dancer due to his hard work. He soon becomes the only male dancer to master Bharatanatyam , as well as three ancient Tamil folk dance forms. 6.A boy in you class loves to sew . The other students in class tease him, including some of your closest friends. What do you do? Ans. I will encourage him to keep doing . I will also tell my classmates to not make fun of him and let him do what he likes to do.
